Panjab University Youth and Heritage Festival

2018-19

A nation's culture resides in the hearts and in the soul of its people. Youth must embrace this culture with their heart and soul as it widens their mind and enriches the society. The Post Graduate Government College Sector 46 with the message of "Light is life" always strives to not educate and also enhance the talent and skills of the students. Youth need to be shown the path to promote and conserve the culture and heritage of the country.

In this direction, the most anticipated event on the campus, the PU Youth and Heritage Festival is organized annually. The fountain of youth is on its finest display during the fest. Our students participated in the 60th Panjab University Zonal Youth and Heritage Festival (Zone A) from 25th September to 28th September, 2018 held at GGSDS College, Sector 32, Chandigarh. The college won twenty six prizes in various art and craft; music; dance; drama; literacy and heritage items.

Conserving culture is the greatest service to the nation. In addition Panditrao Dharenavar, head of the department, from department of Sociology, has carried on the unique campaign against Vulgar, Alcoholic and Weaponry songs. Along with teaching and other duties, Panditrao carried several awareness campaigns all over Punjab with message to save rich Culture and Heritage of Punjab. The methods of awareness included public talk, Public meeting and Cycle yatra with flex board written message. Panditrao also delivered several lectures in school and colleges of Punjab regarding bad impact of Vulgar, Alcoholic and Weaponry songs.
