Gender Equity Activities' Report

2018-19

The students of the Gender Equity Society were oriented regarding the objectives & programmes of the Society. The Society organized a talk on 'Gender Equity and Women Empowerment' on Feb. 01, 2019 by Prof Rajesh Gill, Department of Sociology, Panjab University, Chandigarh. The resource person emphasized on, making gender sensitive society, by providing safe environment and economic self-dependence to girls and women. More than 200 students and several faculty members participated in it.

2019-20

- A talk on 'Gender Equity and women Empowerment' was organized on Aug.30, 2019. The keynote speaker of the lecture was Head, Department of Sociology, Dr. Jagdish Mehta, DAV College, Sector-10, Chandigarh. Dr. Mehta laid stress on the need of women's economic empowerment and said that discrimination against women and girls is a pervasive and long-running phenomenon that characterizes Indian society at every level. More than 100 students participated in the talk which was followed by an interactive session.
- In collaboration with the Department of Defence Studies, an essay writing competition was organized on "Women at War: Transcending all barriers" to highlight the role of women in non-traditional roles such as armed forces etc on February 27th 2020.
- Since domestic violence has plummeted during the Corona virus lockdown period, the Society felt the need to generate awareness among the masses by organizing a virtual three-day awareness campaign from Apr.26-28, 2020 wherein the students and teachers were asked to post slogans, posters, messages, poems etc. on social networking sites to encourage the public to show their solidarity for victims and also to exhibit their compassion and community spirit to embrace those who are trapped in the horrific cycle of abuse.

- A webinar on the topic 'Pandemic, Power, Problems: A Woman's Perspective' was conducted on Dec.21, 2020 More than 165 students along with the staff of the college participated in the webinar. The resource person Dr Priyanka Sonkar, Assistant Professor, Banaras Hindu University, Varanasi shared her valuable views on the issue with students focusing especially on domestic violence against women, lack of employment and lack of logistics for online education in the case of girl students. She also stressed that such times should also be thought of as an opportunity to work together to end gender-based bias. She also encouraged young students to look beyond gender categories to make the world a better place.
- Under the aegis of the Girls Welfare Committee and in collaboration with the Literary Society of the college, International Women's Day was celebrated virtually on March 08, 2021. The Society invited short videos on the theme 'Ordinary Women: Flames of Inspiration' from the students of the college to mark International Women's Day, 2021. Students expressed their views regarding women who play a significant role in their life and are inspirational to them. It was an initiative to show gratitude to women. Around 25 students participated in the activity.

- To commemorate Mother's Day, a virtual meeting on the theme 'Mother: A Human Too' was organized on May 09, 2021, with the subtheme 'Bring A Smile On Your Mother's Face'. Students were asked to share their stories on social media platforms in the form of poetry, painting, feelings, songs, photos, helping their mother in the kitchen and post the same on Facebook/Instagram post/WhatsApp status or other social media platforms to inspire others. They were also told to explore the hobbies, preferences and unfulfilled dreams of their mothers. Around 45 students participated in the activity.

- Based on the theme 'Gender Equality Today for A Sustainable Tomorrow' International Women's Day was celebrated on March 08, 2022. An extension lecture was organised on this day and women achievers Dr Jayanti Datta, Deputy Director, Academic Staff College, Punjab University, Chandigarh; Ms Rekha Sangwan, Deputy Superintendent of Police at Central Bureau of Investigation; Prof. Sumangal Roy, Associate Professor, Department of Sculpture, Government College of Art, Chandigarh; Dr Oorvi Kulkarni, Assistant Professor, Department of Kayachikitsa, Shri Dhanwantri Ayurvedic College & Hospital, Chandigarh and Ms Heena Mishra, Activist were felicitated by the Principal of the college. A skit was also performed on this occasion.
- Tribute was paid to the stalwart of the women's movement in India Kamla Bhasin by screening her talks on the origin and consequences of patriarchy on October 19, 2021.
- In collaboration with "Dharini" Environment Awareness Society, International Women's Day was celebrated on the college campus. A workshop based on the theme 'Nurture the Nurturer' was organised to acknowledge the crucial role women play in conserving and sustaining the bountiful nature and its resources. The workshop had multifarious activities including an extempore on the topic 'Most Influential Women in My Life'. Students were given two minutes to think and speak on the given topic. The workshop was highly interactive in nature as students presented their thoughts in poetry, speech as well as in the form of PowerPoint presentations. The highlight of the workshop was the 'Know Your Heroes' Quiz through which the students acknowledged the marvellous work done by women in the fields of science, wildlife conservation and astronomy.

- Organized screening of a documentary 'Equal Half' on November 11, 2023 to create awareness among students of the condition of women in society and sensitize them of gender equality. Dr Abha Sudarshan, Principal of the college insisted on uprooting the evil of female foeticide.
- Celebrated 'National Girl Child Day' on January 24, 2023 by organizing a 'Self Defence Training Programme' on the college campus. The objective of the programme was to educate girl students about the different techniques of self-defence to face any untoward incidence or violence against them. Organized a talk on 'Women Empowerment through Yoga' by an expert Woman Entrepreneur Ms Alka Dogra Sharma on the occasion of International Women's Day on March 07, 2023. Students attended the talk in large numbers. Ms Dogra highlighted the need for practicing yoga women to improve the physical and mental health of women. She talked about the importance of women's health and how they are major stakeholders in the development of society as a whole. The Principal of the college, Dr. Abha Sudarshan shared with the students the importance of gender equity and how women need to focus on both women's rights and social responsibility.
